MALLYA LOSES UK APPEAL FOR FUNDS TO COVER LEGAL FEES

Fugitive businessman Vijay Mallya on Wednesday lost an appeal to gain further access to court-held funds to cover his costs for legal proceedings in India, as a High Court judge in London concluded that he had failed to provide sufficient evidence in support of the over 750,000 pounds being sought. During a hearing of the Chancery Division, Justice Robert Miles handed down his judgment in favour of a consortium of Indian banks led by the SBI.

GLOBAL RECOGNITION FOR A NOBLE VISION.

THE IMPACT RANKINGS 2021

"Today, universities are ranked mainly based on funding, the number of papers they publish, and their intellectual calibre. But we should also consider how much their research can serve the lowest and most vulnerable strata of society. Only by strengthening the base of the society, does the entire edifice grow healthy and strong."
